Princess Cruises Expands Alaska National Parks Cruisetours Adventures in 2025 and 2026

The Leading Cruise Line in the Great Land Offers Countless Memories to Five National Parks

FT. LAUDERDALE, Fla. (February 11, 2025) – Exploring the pristine natural beauty of America's national parks remains a top travel trend, and as the leading cruise line in Alaska, Princess Cruises is expanding its renowned cruisetours catalog. The new itineraries give guests more opportunities to discover awe-inspiring national parks, including Glacier Bay, Denali, Wrangell St. Elias, Kenai Fjords, and Katmai.

Following the successful launch of the 15-night National Parks Expedition cruisetour in 2024, Princess is offering new variations, visiting from three to five national parks, that combine the cruise line's award-winning "Voyage of the Glaciers" seven-day cruise with scenic rail travel, and multiple days on land, featuring stays at four Princess-owned wilderness lodges.

"There's no better way to experience the breathtaking expanse of Alaska than by combining the luxury of a cruise with an immersive journey on land. Our expanded National Parks 2025 and 2026 cruisetours offer guests an array of exciting options that elevate their vacation experience," said Terry Thornton, Princess Cruises Chief Commercial Officer. "Alaska is a land of towering glaciers, majestic peaks, abundant wildlife, and stunning beauty that stretches as far as the eye can see. With our seamlessly crafted cruisetours, guests are brought directly to the doorsteps of some of the world's most iconic national parks, allowing them to explore and soak in the awe-inspiring natural splendor that makes this destination truly unique."

During the Alaska season that runs April through September Princess will sail seven ships in 2025 and eight ships in 2026 departing from five convenient home ports, including Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle, Vancouver, B.C. and Anchorage (Whittier). With 88 visits to Glacier Bay, Princess visits this spectacular national park more often than any other cruise line.

Princess' award-winning North to Alaska program enriches the onboard experience with local lumberjacks, Iditarod champions, and storytellers sharing their passions for Alaska. Other offerings include fresh Alaska seafood menus, a variety of shore excursions, and authentic commentary by Glacier Bay Park Rangers and Naturalists.
