Princess Cruises Unveils 2027 World Cruise Grand Circle Pacific Voyage

Sailing from Ft. Lauderdale Jan. 6, 2027, this impressive 129-Night Voyage Visits 61 Iconic Destinations Across Three Continents

FT. LAUDERDALE, Fla. (April 30, 2025) – Embark on an extraordinary adventure with the 129-night World Cruise Grand Circle Pacific Voyage, the most destination-packed cruise offered by Princess Cruises. Setting sail aboard Coral Princess in January 2027, this epic journey visits 61 destinations across 20 countries and three continents. Perfect for the adventurous traveller, it promises an unparalleled exploration experience like no other.

On sale now, there are three departure options with a 129-night journey sailing from Ft. Lauderdale to Los Angeles on Jan. 6, 2027; a 114-night roundtrip departure from Los Angeles on Jan. 21, 2027; and a 110-night cruise from Los Angeles to Vancouver on Jan. 21, 2027.

“Our upcoming 2027 World Cruise Grand Circle Pacific Voyage is a once-in-a-lifetime journey connecting travellers to the world’s most breathtaking destinations with the signature warmth and elegance only Princess can provide,” said Terry Thornton, Princess Cruises Chief Commercial Officer. “This 129-day adventure is designed for guests who yearn to experience different cultures, history, flavours and the breathtaking spectacles of the Pacific like never before.”

Alluring Destinations

The journey includes bustling cities, iconic landmarks, ancient wonders and tropical escapes, from:

- The historic Panama Canal, followed by four breathtaking Hawaiian Islands
- The South Pacific, including Samoa, Fiji, and Vanuatu
- Australia & New Zealand, from Brisbane and Tasmania to both islands of New Zealand
- Southeast Asia, with visits to Indonesia, Thailand, and Hong Kong
- Japan including Okinawa and Osaka
- Alaska with six destinations in The Great Land
- Vancouver before the voyage ends in Los Angeles

Voyage Highlights
